

WORTHY IS THE LAMB

Revelation 5:12

In a loud voice they sang: "Worthy is the Lamb, who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and praise."

On a wintry day, on a windswept beach, a crowd stood squinting into the seething water. The cry had gone up, "Lost boy!" They shielded their eyes against the whapping wind and moaned in despair. Then someone caught sight of the dying youngster, broke through the ranks, tearing off his clothes as he plunged into the boiling sea to bring the child home.

Out in the darkness of a vast universe the cry went up, "Lost planet!" And from the safety of heaven the Prince himself came to save the lonely little world that was spinning its way deeper and deeper into the darkness. "Poor little planet," he said, stripping off his glory as he came.

And do you wonder why we sing our love for the Lamb of God?

(From The God of the Towel, Howard Publishing, used by permission.)

jim mcguiggan