

Revelation 5:6,13: "Then I saw a Lamb, looking as if it had been slain, standing in the center of the throne...Worthy is the Lamb, who was slain..."

THERE CAN ONLY BE ONE

We hear the quiet breathing of the Holy Spirit on every page of holy Scripture, but when we listen to what he's whispering there is only one name on his lips-Jesus.

When he was nineteen and on a tour with the orchestra in Rio De Janeiro, Toscanini had to fill in for the conductor who became ill. From memory he conducted Verdi's Aida and the world discovered a genius. He's praised most for his interpretation of Beethoven. Orchestras that didn't know they could play so well would rise to their feet to applaud him for what he brought out of the them. More than once, embarrassed by the fervor he had to beg them stop. "It isn't me," he'd say, "It's Beethoven."

The Spirit would ceaselessly remind us, "It isn't you; it's the Lord Christ!" There is no other name, no other heart, no other face-there is only One! Only one to proclaim.

jim mcguiggan

(From "Where the Spirit of the Lord Is" by Howard publishing. Used by permission.)